Let It Be You!

IN every city there is one merchant in each line who stands head and shoulders above his competitors because he is qualified to give his clients authoritative advice. This jeweler—for jewelry is what interests you—not only keeps abreast of the times, but is in advance of it. He knows the trend in jewelry design and can therefore give his customers rings that are works of art and not mere copies of what somebody else is wearing.

This jeweler is entitled to the help of the manufacturer and should not be asked to gather these facts by himself, as he has had to do in the past. The average manufacturer sends out a catalog once a year and lets it go at that. The Jabel Ring Mfg. Co. doesn't propose to keep you in the dark concerning developments in ring design.

This folder is the first of a series that will be sent to you regularly to keep you informed of what is new in "Ring Transformations." It will be a valuable source of information to you and well worth your filing in the convenient method offered by this binder.

It pays to be able to tell your customers all about rings, to be able to discuss the subject exhaustively. Some jeweler in your city is going to be the leader because he can do it.

Let it be you!

When Pharaoh Placed His Ring On Joseph's Finger.

THE earliest rings known were discovered in the tombs of the 18th Egyptian Dynasty.

The 42nd chapter of Genesis relates that Pharaoh placed his ring on Joseph's finger, as a sign that he was second in authority only to Pharaoh himself.

The poison ring of medieval times was a grim circlet that carried poison concealed in a hollow bezel. A tiny spring enabled the wearer to give a fatal scratch when shaking hands with a person whose speedy demise was considered desirable.

Rings have come to have a very different meaning in our day. The betrothal ring proclaims the pledge to wed. The wedding ring seals the union in marriage. Set with the birthstone of the young person who is to receive it, the friendship ring makes a particularly intimate and appreciated gift.

As an acquisition likely to be treasured for a lifetime, a ring should be selected with care and thoughtfulness. We are ready to assist you in helping your customer choose a ring suitable to its purpose—and at a price you can afford to pay.
